

Good Links to material regarding Essay Writing

<http://www.gallaudet.edu/CLAST/Tutorial and Instructional Programs/English Works/Writing/Essays.html>

Gallaudet University, Washington, DC has wonderful materials on essay writing!

<http://www.wisc.edu/writing/Handbook/Thesis.html>

Writing Centre (University of Wisconsin-Madison) information on how to write an effective Thesis Statement.

<http://www.fas.harvard.edu/~wricntr/documents/Structure.html>

Harvard University has excellent material on Essay Structure!

http://www.dartmouth.edu/~writing/materials/student/ac_paper/grammar.shtml

Dartmouth Writing Program online information on grammar in good writing – excellent!

Types of Essays:

<http://www.roanestate.edu/owl/Types.html>

Online Writing Lab of Roane State Community College has good information on how to write various types of essays.

<http://leo.stcloudstate.edu/acadwrite/comparcontrast.html>

Literacy Education Online discusses how to write Compare and Contrast essays.

<http://bellevuecollege.edu/asc/writing/essays-guides/default.asp>

Bellevue College writing lab has good information on types of essays.

<http://leo.stcloudstate.edu/acadwrite/process.html>

Literacy Education Online explains how to write a Process essay.

Writing Summaries

<http://writing.colostate.edu/guides/documents/standsum/>

Colorado State University explains how to write a Summary.

Writing Critiques

<http://www.rpi.edu/web/writingcenter/critique.html>

The Writing Center at Rensselaer explains how to write a Critique.

<http://www.writing.utoronto.ca/advice/specific-types-of-writing/book-review>

University of Toronto (Canada) explains how to write an article critique or a book review.