Job Description
Web Developer/Web Design

The Economic Empowerment Center, Inc., is seeking a highly motivated and organized team player to fill the position of Web Developer Intern. This is an exciting opportunity for a qualified candidate to be an integral part of enhancing the image of an already successful brand. You will work with the Executive Director to enhance and maintain the relevancy and integrity of the organization's website.

Qualifications

- At least some experience in either client-side development using HTML/CSS/JavaScript or server-side development using languages like PHP, C#, etc.

- Good problem solving skills

- Ability to collaborate and share knowledge with team members, but also work independently when required

- Student working towards degree in Information Technology/Computer Science or related field

- Excellent written and verbal communication skills

Duties and Responsibilities

- Builds and enhances applications using various development languages and tools

- Assists with content management on the various websites and marketing channels

- Troubleshooting customer support issues
- Performs other miscellaneous duties as required

Send an email of interest and a copy of your resume to:
info@economicpowernow.org